Safe & Civil City Sponsorship Packages

2023-2024 Events

The City of Bloomington Safe and Civil City Programs is excited to offer sponsorship packages for the 2023-2024 events. We have five different levels of sponsorship, each with its own unique benefits and opportunities for exposure. Our Presenting Sponsor package, limited to one sponsor, includes top billing on all event materials, as well as exclusive access to VIP events and a dedicated sponsor booth when applicable. Our other package benefits are outlined in the enclosed individual event forms. No matter which package you choose, we are grateful for your support and look forward to working with you to make this year a success!

For more information about the 2023-2024 Safe & Civil City Sponsorship Packages, please contact Shatoyia Moss, Safe & Civil City Director, at mosss@bloomington.in.gov.

Black y Brown Arts Festival Sponsorship

The Event

The Black y Brown Arts Festival (BBAF) is a celebration and showcase of African, African-American, Hispanic, Latinx, and Native American creative arts and artists, affirming community space, preserving arts appreciation, and pride in the spirit of diversity of the local Bloomington community. The festival will provide a medium for local talent to showcase visual and performance art in an environment that engages the audience with artists and their work.

Commission on the Status of Black Males Black Male Summit Sponsorship

The Event

The Black Male Summit is dedicated to championing fairness, and empowering, enhancing, and nurturing children and youth through community engagement. More broadly, the Summit's goals are to provide space and opportunity for students of color to express themselves, learn, make memorable connections, and highlight men of color in our community who have skills and information to offer to our youth. The Summit also seeks to support students of color by coordinating and delivering resources and information specifically addressing the needs and concerns of this traditionally underrepresented group. Although focused on African American and Latino males, the Summit is open to young male-identifying students of all races and backgrounds.

Commission on the Status of Children and Youth Swagger Sponsorship

The Event

The purpose of the Commission on the Status of Children and Youth is to promote connections in our community which empower, enhance and nurture children and youth. One of the Commission's goals is to celebrate successes of children and youth. The S.W.A.G.G.E.R. (Students Who Act Generously, Grow and Earn Respect) award criteria acknowledges children and youth who have shown commitment to a cause or taken action(s) that have improved their lives and/or the lives of others around them. Nominations may be made for children and youth in the following four (4) age categories: K-2, 3-6, 7-8, and 9-12.
